ON PRICE & GARIBALDI

Apartment Plan Ok'd

R-3 zoning for vacant lots on Garibaldi and Price streets—for apartments—was granted Monday night by split vote of the city council.

The rezoning applications of the three landowners passed by the "yes" votes of Mayor Edward Dennis, Councilman Bob St. Clair and Councilman Micheal DeBernardi.

Councilmen Joseph Verducci and Francis Pacelli opposed the rezoning, sympathizing with several homeowners in the Garibaldi area who have long fought the rezoning because they want all property fronting Garibaldi to remain single family residential—for homes.

Verducci insisted that Gus Pedemonte's promises to the council that he would put in a street linking dead-end Garibaldi south to Price street was not a part of the ordinances, thus there was virtually no guarantee the street would be put in. Pedemonte said he would personally install the street, feeling this move would convince the nearby homeowners that adequate parking and access would be provided for in connection with the apartments.

City Attorney Paul Hupf, answering a Verducci question, declared that the ordinances as passed by 3-2 vote did not commit Pedemonte to put in the street. Hupf indicated that Pedemonte's proposal was more of an agreement and "not binding."

Attorney John Putkey, representing Pedemonte, said the latter had filed a performance bond with a title company for the street and that Pedemonte would follow through as he pledged. Variance applications for elimination of the street setbacks on the apartments property will come before the council soon.

St. Clair reminded Verducci that the city still "has the weapons" to halt the apartments should Pedemonte renege on the street installation.

Pedemonte and the two other parties seeking the rezoning plan 147 individual apartment units in the area.

In the fourth rezoning decision on the agenda, Verducci was the lone dissenter as the other four councilmen approved the rezoning of a lot on Crocker avenue, owned by plumber E. Cardellini, 6185 Mission street, from R-1 (homes) to C-1 (commercial). Several neighbors on Crocker opposed this rezoning. Verducci agreed that the rezoning would establish "an island between R-2 and C-1 zoning, an impractical situation."

Cardellini said the structure to be erected would be a stucco building and that no additional parking problems (trucks) would result on Crocker. His main plumbing establishment is around the corner on Mission. The new building will be used for storage.

CITY LOOKING FOR OUTSIDE AUDIT FIRM

City officials today were awaiting to contract an outside auditing firm to make a general audit of last fiscal year's books—a job that should take less than a month and which should clarify the financial status of the municipality.

City Finance Director Joseph Arch's year-end fiscal report is expected this week. Immediately after its submission, City Auditor Bob Hunter will follow up with his check of Arch's survey.

Councilman Micheal DeBernardi, taking to the blackboard Monday night, charged that certain "misstatements which have been made in the press are untrue." He attempted to show that city finances were in order, pointing out that in his opinion "the facts have been distorted."

DeBernardi said the special audit should show clearly that the city's procedures in allocating and budgeting funds have been consistent with council policy.

He also said that a general audit of this type was not an extraordinary measure, but "gives the city added protection" in cases of controversy.

Council Awaits County's Move For Sales Tax

The city council Monday night delegated Councilman Francis Pacelli to represent Daly City at the November 5 meeting with county supervisors for the discussion of a uniform county-wide sales tax adoption.

County Manager E. R. Stallings feels that should supervisors approve the county-wide levy, the county's share of sales tax returns from each city should be 10 percent.

Under DC's three special tax ordinances, one limits the county's share to 5 percent if a county-wide tax is adopted. DC councilmen Monday night expressed displeasure at the 10 percent proposal.

Councilman Joseph Verducci charged the county has shown "no initiative in sales tax and shouldn't get a penny more than 5 per cent," as per DC's ordinance.

Councilman Micheal DeBernardi said the county's share should even be reduced to 2½ percent. City Attorney Paul Hupf reminded that no county action on sales tax could supercede DC's provisions for 5 percent to the county. In other words, should supervisors adopt a county-wide sales tax, DC would not have to pay the county 10 percent, but only 5 percent.

Councilman Francis Pacelli added, "the county is in no position to dictate to us."

'PROTECTION' OR 'VINDICATION'

This newspaper wishes to reiterate its stand on the present situation at City Hall.

What is right for the community and its citizens will continue to be our platform for betterment in city management. We will always take a stand for good, efficient and honest government — dedicated to the benefit of the ENTIRE community.

If certain members of the city council are more interested in good press notices than they are in attending to the affairs of the city, then they should not be "directing" municipal management.

The nationally respected firm of Haskins and Sells turned down the job of making a general audit of the city's books because it — and other reputed firms — are not interested in making the necessarily protective survey that would have as a primary purpose the "vindication" of the council. An outside audit merely to "substantiate" the political position of any one councilman has not been endorsed by the majority of the council.

The councilmen should not be primarily interested in "saving themselves," but honestly should be sincere in attempting to learn if budget policy could stand some improvement and to convince taxpayers that the city's finances are in order.

More than a few citizens at Monday night's council meeting appeared disturbed over the "motives" of the individual councilmen — and one in particular.

There still remain logical doubts on the ability of certain councilmen to handle the affairs of the city — for the community and not for personal glorification and political survival!

Finally, we are greatly pleased to see the large turnout of civic-minded citizens at the recent council meetings.

Friday And Saturday Nights

CITY, SCHOOLS HERE SCHEDULE LOTS OF HALLOWEEN ACTIVITIES

Ghosts, goblins, witches on brooms, and many other weird costumes will wend their way to the various Halloween parties being staged by the Daly City Department of Parks and Recreation, Jefferson Elementary and High School Districts, and various PTAs throughout the city this Friday night, October 30, and Saturday night, October 31.

Parties are being hosted for all sixth grade students and under at the following sites on Friday night starting at 7 o'clock: Colma School, Crocker, Olympia, Vista Grande, Westlake, Westmoor High School, and Woodrow Wilson School.

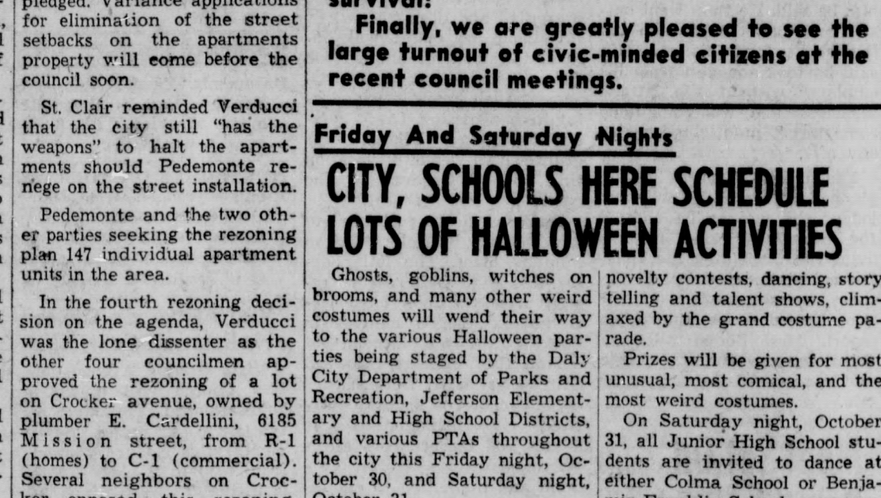
There will be games, singing, novelty contests, dancing, story telling and talent shows, climaxed by the grand costume parade.

Prizes will be given for most unusual, most comical, and the most weird costumes.

On Saturday night, October 31, all Junior High School students are invited to dance at either Colma School or Benjamin Franklin School, commencing at 7:30 and ending at 10:30.

All students must show either a Hi Fi Teen Club membership card or a local high school student body card to be admitted. Admission prices are 25c for members of the Hi Fi Teen Club and 75c for others.



EROSION is so bad and catch basins are so faulty at above section of Old Coast Highway at Wild Man's Gulch that the road has completely crumbled. Inspecting the situation are Doelger engineers Carl Timmons and Ted Tronoff, City Attorney Paul Hupf, and DC Public Works Director Otis Calhoun. The city council has moved to terminate its maintenance agreement with the state because costs to keep the old route usable have been prohibitive.

STORMY meeting Monday night revealed the city council's intentions to ask for the resignation of or vote for the dismissal of Public Works Director Otis Calhoun. The 50-year-old administrator, on duty here since January 2 of 1957, has demanded the council explain its reasons for the impending ouster in an open-to-the-public session. Calhoun has worked professionally in engineering since 1936. Before coming to Daly City, he worked for 12 years as assistant airport engineer for the city of Los Angeles. THE RECORD photo

City Annexation Of 100-Acre Unit Hinges On Industry

Daly City Councilmen met again with Standard Building Company brass early Monday night but this latest talk on possible annexation of the proposed 100-acre subdivision east of here off Bellevue street failed to produce any new developments.

The Standard firm, which is planning a 600-home development on the hilly Crocker Estate land, has no plans for industrial development—a factor the city looks on with disfavor.

The council isn't interested in annexation of the Standard tract until Daly City knows from Crocker Estate directors if industrial development is planned near the Standard's "Panorama" tract.

A Standard spokesman said his firm could wait only about a month more before it would make its final decision on annexation.

The company seeks provision for many 25-foot lots (city's are 33-footers by ordinance). If the development remains in the county jurisdiction, the lot sizes would have to be 50 feet —thus less homes for the developer and less profit.

City Attorney Paul Hupf was instructed by the council to immediately arrange for another meeting with Crocker officials to explore the latter's overall plan for the development of Crocker's undeveloped 4000 acres.

COUNCIL DEFINES MANAGER AIDE'S DUAL JOB DUTIES

Duties of city administrative assistant Phillip J. Brown were respecified by the city council Monday night on recommendation of City Attorney Paul Hupf, interim city manager.

Brown henceforth will be given credit (in his position's duty statements) for devoting half of his time to personnel matters and the remainder to the regular duties of aide to the city manager.

Hupf pointed out that Brown had been accomplishing both tasks and hadn't been getting credit for it on his personnel record. The city attorney said the city personnel board's recommendation of a salary increase for Brown (currently paid only $546 a month), was entirely a decision of the council's.

Brown, 28, was hired by City Manager Howard Stites with council approval in December of 1957.

FIRING MOVE REVEALED

Council Admits Calhoun Told To Leave Job

An unexpectedly explosive city council meeting Monday night revealed that Public Works Director Otis Calhoun has been asked to resign and produced a demand from a citizen that councilman and former mayor Micheal DeBernardi also should resign "in view of his voting record and for the good of the community."

The council "made public" its earlier closed-meeting talks with Calhoun—informing him that all five councilmen felt he should look for another job — only after a resident from the audience, abetted by other citizens among the big crowd, demanded to know if it were true that Calhoun's tenure were about to be halted.

Both developments — Calhoun's situation and the statement blasting DeBernardi—were spurred by questions from the audience, posed by Hoke and Elsie Garrison, of 324 Northgate drive in Westlake.

Mrs. Garrison, a steady follower of city hall affairs, kicked off the fireworks by pinpointing Councilman Francis Pacelli on the "rumors going about that the position of director of public works is about to be abolished."

Pacelli at first making no reference to Calhoun's status as an individual, answered that according to city statutes, "we have no such position of public works director in the first place."

Pacelli added that the only legal authority on Calhoun was a 1957 resolution authorizing the man to hold the dual capacity of city engineer and superintendent of streets.

Mrs. Garrison implied that Pacelli's answer was evasive and she continued her queries with insistent backing from Councilman Joseph Verducci. From the beginning of the uproar, Verducci demanded that Calhoun's status be announced and clarified by the council.

Next challenge by Mrs. Garrison was directed at DeBernardi. She declared that early last year DeBernardi "instigated the move to reshuffle the public works department," an action urging more authority for Dave Cafferata as street department foreman and Charles A. "Gus" Ford as water department supervisor.

DeBernardi made no comment on these allegations but confirmed Pacelli's subsequent reply that the council majority was dissatisfied with Calhoun's performance.

Councilman Bob St. Clair, declaring that it was unfortunate the council couldn't have discussed Calhoun's status in a study session or announced personnel meet, emphasized that the council's discussions about Calhoun were made earlier in the evening and also that all five councilmen, "not just the majority," told Calhoun his work has been unsatisfactory and he would be given the opportunity to resign.

Calhoun, meanwhile, in the closed meeting, expressed complete surprise over the council's dissatisfaction with his performance. He said he would like to have the matter aired in a public meeting so that he could know exactly what the council feels he has failed to accomplish. Calhoun denies statements by the council that he had been looking for another job for some time.

Mayor Edward Dennis constantly interrupting Pacelli and reminding that "three members of the council are of the feeling Calhoun should be asked to resign," agreed with Verducci that Calhoun's status should be placed in the hands of the new city manager—once the latter is appointed.

Verducci went further, asserting that he questioned if the council had "any authority at all" in asking for Calhoun's resignation. He cited the governmental code which stipulates that department heads are hired and dismissed only by the exclusive authorization of the city manager.

Verducci went on to substantiate Calhoun's answers to questions from the audience about the title "director of public works."

Pacelli, who like St. Clair, feels the job of "public works director" should be re-evaluated to see if it is practical and

Fall Leads To Skull Fracture, Westlaker Dies

Ralph Kattge, 43, 68 Northgate avenue, was pronounced dead by the County Coroner's office Monday evening after he apparently slipped near his home and fell to the front lawn, suffering a fractured skull.

Sergeant Rico Benedetti and Officer Jim Bergstrom responded to a call from Joel Hollander, 15, 99 Northgate avenue. The youngster said three boys knocked on his door and told him the man was prone on the lawn.

Kattge's wife told police that the drug store her husband owns was but a 10-minute walk. Bergstrom said the victim's wallet was not disturbed and police believe he died of natural causes. The coroner is continuing the investigation.

REFUSES TO CONTINUE MAINTENANCE RISK

City Quits Coast Highway Pact

The city council unanimously approved City Attorney Paul Hupf's recommendation Monday night that Daly City terminate its agreement with the state by which the city has been responsible for the maintenance of the now closed to the public old Coast Highway.

Meanwhile, a meeting of county and state officials last week in Redwood City advanced Daly City attempts to expedite the release of certain funds for the development of Thornton Beach as a state park.

But the status of old Coast Highway and the state's willingness to assume its responsibility and approve the funds still remain indefinite.

The council feels that continued city maintenance of the old Coast Highway is unwise since constant need for repairs (due to erosion and slides) makes the responsibility prohibitive from a financial standpoint. The motion asking the state to take over the maintenance after 30 days could lead to complete abandonment of the route by the state.

Hupf met with Doelger Corporation engineers last week and inspected the critical drainage problems that have resulted from dislocated catch basins and erosion on the cliffs leading to the highway.

At one point, Wild Man's Gulch, Hupf said the erosion has completely wiped out the road—making it impassable. The Daly City Scavenger company has graded out a temporary road along this area so that it could continue to send its trucks to and from the municipal dump site at Mussel Rock. Should the state abandon the highway, the scavengers would have to approach the dump in the future from the south—going along Skyline and cutting across to Mussel Rock.

Correction of the erosion and catch basin woes still awaits a determination of fixing responsibility.

Charles De Turk, chief of the State Division of Beaches and Parks, met with county supervisors, the county parks commission, and State Senator Richard Dolwig last week to pursue the city's, Chamber of Commerce's and Westlake Association appeals for funds to speed the Thornton Beach development.

De Turk indicated the State Division of Beaches and Parks would not oppose the proposed reallocation of funds to develop Thornton Beach.

Three Citizens Comment On Audit ,Calhoun

Monday night's hectic city council session, highlighted by statements about the special audit and the move to remove the director of public works, was attended by an attentive, near capacity audience.

The following comments from citizens resulted:

Mrs. Elsie Garrison, 324 Northgate avenue . . .

"I think my question asking Mr. Pacelli if there was any truth to rumors that the council was considering abolishing the position of public works director was a proper inquiry. I was very distressed because Pacelli would not answer my question directly. I'm afraid he put the technicality before the facts. He hedged for an answer, then it came out that the rumors were not rumors at all and that the council had discussed Calhoun's status at an earlier closed meeting."

Mrs. Michael Amorose, 110 Mirada drive, St. Francis Heights . . .

"I'm afraid the city is being turned over to the builders. The situation at present is pretty awful. Why has it taken so long for a general audit of the city's books? My husband is a CPA and he feels this kind of an audit has been delayed to long. In city government, it ought to be fairly easy to conduct a thorough audit when all funds are supposed to be accounted for. Does a council think a city manager can run everything? I don't think so. What about good department heads? The council feels maybe that by eliminating the director of public works this is an 'economy' move. It's seems penny wise and pound foolish to me . . . and it's pretty close to the next election. As Mr. Verducci pointed out, out of 23 California cities of 30,000-50,000 population, 19 of these have a director of public works . . . a professional man. Are we eliminating the professionals so others can take command?"

Mrs. Doris Wimberly, 892 North Mayfair avenue . . .

On everybody's mind in Daly City is the need for a clarification on what connection the audit has in regard to Mr. Watts, the fired city manager. Lately, the word is going around that City Attorney Paul Hupf will be the next to be pressured out by the council. As far as Mr. Calhoun is concerned, I am in no position to know the council's reasons — individually — for announcing their intention to ask his resignation."

TOYLAND PARKING ZONES CUT DOWN AFTER PROTESTS

Protests of several residents on San Diego avenue against the extended marked parking zones for Toyland Nursery resulted in a reduction of these loading and passenger zones and time limits by council edict.

Asst. Police Chief Roy McLaren surveyed the situation and his recommendations were endorsed and forwarded to the council by Police Chief Roland Petrocchi.

Petrocchi also has assigned a police officer to supervise the Miriam-Knowles crossing, following complaints from mothers of Woodrow Wilson school youngsters. Whether another crossing guard will be authorized by the council for this intersection is still undetermined.

BANDITS GET OVER $11,000 FROM 'CASBAH'

Opening the door for two thieves when she believed her husband to be at the front door of her establishment Monday at 2:30 a.m., Mrs. Ester Katzman was relieved of more than $11,000 in cash and jewelry.

Mrs. Katzman, 42, 1677 Eleanor drive, San Mateo, is the owner of the Casbah Tavern and Restaurant, 6192 Mission street, Daly City. She was counting the night's receipts with manager Frank Sanchez, 33, 31 Partridge Lane, in the back kitchen when the intruders arrived.

Hearing a knock at the front door and believing it to be her husband, Mrs. Katzman left the room to answer. A few seconds later she was walking backward into the kitchen and exclaimed to Sanchez, "It's a hold-up."

Two men entered. Both were described as between 30 and 35 years old, having black hair and brown eyes. One, about 5-9 and 160 pounds, wore a brown sportcoat and dark brown slacks. He carried a small automatic. The other was about 6 feet tall, 180 and wore a black charcoal coat and slacks. He carried a .38 caliber revolver.

The automatic toter asked where the money was kept, at the same time ripping a necklace with 75 diamonds on it from Mrs. Katzman's neck.

Ex-Footballer Gives DC Cops More Concern

Thomas E. Coop, 17, 463 D street, Colma, a center for the Jeff High football team last year, recently stole a police car from in front of police station and returned it to the same spot, followed by a stern reprimand.

Saturday at 8 a.m. he cut his arm on a window at 31 Bismark street when he attempted to shatter the glass to his girl friend's bedroom. He was taken to Junipero Serra Hospital for treatment of a four-inch cut on his right arm. Wilson Brown, the girl's father, had placed a tourniquet on his arm.

Coop told Officer John Coleman that he had been dating Judy Brown, 18, for three months. Friday night she went out on a date with John Selva, 21, 15 Laidley street, San Francisco.

Coop said he waited outside the house until Selva arrived with Miss Brown. Then he attempted to ram Selva's auto with his own, according to police. The police did not have a previous report on this attempt.

Selva said Coop agreed to pay for damage to the car. The next morning Coop arrived at the Brown house and the girl's father said he would not allow Coop to see the girl. The former footballer became belligerent and slammed the door on his way out. Brown then heard the crash and glass breaking.

Coop was transferred to Mary's Help Hospital. He has been receiving counseling two times a week, his parents told police.

Gas Explosion In Garage Is Probed Here

Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy has an illustrative warning to residents of this city about what is illegal about working on cars in garages and the consequences that could occur.

Ed Ercolini, 39 Price street, and James Chandler McKellips, 20, 293 Molind drive, San Francisco, found out the hard way.

Ercolini, moved into the residence last Thursday and was planning for his wedding date, this coming Sunday. At 5 p.m., he and McKellips pushed a hot-rod they are building into the garage at the house. He and McKellips left for approximately 10 minutes.

They came back and opened the garage door and were greeted by a blast of flame which occurred from a minor explosion when gas leaking from the hot rod and flames from the water heater united.

The heat was so intense it melted the glasses right off Ercolini's face. He was slightly burned about the face but refused medical aid. McKellips sustained first and second degree burns on the face, neck, leg and forearm and was treated at Junipero Serra Hospital, then released.

Damage to the garage, living room and roof was approximated at $4500. Battalion Fire Chief Wayne Alexander was in charge of Companies 2, 6 and Areal No. 1 that responded to the scene.

The building belongs to the John Grey Land Company, 681 Market street, San Francisco. Alexander noted that it is illegal — by city ordinance — to work on autos inside basements, outside of doing minor repairs. It is also illegal to store acetylene or have spray painting materials about, as they are a definite hazard, he stated.

Alexander gave an illustration of what happened in 1952 when two youths here washed down a garage floor with gasoline on it at a residence on Woodrow street. The explosion rocked the building 16 inches off its foundation, killing both boys!

In another fire last week, Mrs. Olga Vichier-Guerre, 96 Palisades drive, suffered second degree burns on her right hand when a skillet she was cooking french fried potatoes in caught fire.

She brought the pan to the sink and turned the water on, the "boiling" grease on her hand causing the damage. The smoke and burned kitchen curtains amounted to $200 damage in the Sunday fire. The woman was treated at Junipero Serra Hospital.

Charter Government Report Almost Ready

Westlake resident Mrs. Grace Woods, chairman of the council-appointed citizens Charter Government Study Committee, informed Mayor Edward Dennis Monday night that the group's report on the pros and cons of charter government is being finalized and should be in the hands of the council within the next few weeks.

Mother Of 5 Wounded By Shotgun Blast

Bernard M. Boden sometimes uses a shotgun to rid his property of rodents and other animal pests but police voiced extreme concern over what Boden termed an "accident" when he fired a single shot into his wife's leg early Monday morning.

Boden, 43-year-old nurseryman of 14 Edgemar road, Daly City, was booked on suspicion of assault with a deadly weapon and attempting to murder his wife, Alice.

Officer Ralph Warren responded to a call at 3:30 a.m. from Matther Boden, 20, the couple's son, who reported a shooting at the family home. When Warren arrived he saw Boden standing in the tunnel entrance at his home with a blood-stained towel in his right hand.

"I just shot my wife—she's upstairs," he blurted.

Alice, 37, dressed in a nightgown, was lying in a prone position in the living room. Warren applied a tourniquet to her right leg to stem the flow of blood. The doctor at Junipero Serra Hospital later said the single shot grazed the outside of her right leg, passed through the inner side of the left thigh and out through the outside of the left leg.

Sergeant Ricco Benedetti, Officer Richard Leahy quickly joined Warren at the home. Whole the woman was being taken to Junipero Serra Hospital the police drove her husband there and questioned him on the way.

Boden said he had been arguing with his wife the past several months. He told police he had taken his youngest son, Terry, 4, to Golden Gate Park at 3:30 p.m. Saturday and had four shots of whiskey with a friend of his at the park.

Boden returned home at 5 p.m. and on his arrival, he said his wife told him he was drunk and demanded he leave the house. He then went to his sister's house (Mrs. Thomas Walker) at 3824 Army street, San Francisco. Boden added that he had two cans of beer and fell asleep.

At 1:30 a.m. he awoke and decided to return home. His wife was in bed and a heated argument began, he asserted. She said he was drunk and she was going to cut his eyes out, brandishing a knife as she said this, Boden claimed. Mrs. Boden later told Warren she did not remember attempting to do her husband any harm with the knife.

Boden went into the kitchen while his wife kept yelling at him he said. He then went outside and took the shotgun and five shells from his car. (He said he took the gun from his employer without the latter's knowledge and "was going to do some target practicing" on his day off).

Boden told Warren he just planned "to scare" his wife and loaded the gun as he entered the house. She came into the living room, wielding the knife, and cut his index finger at the same time she grabbed for the gun, according to the police report. Mrs. Boden allegedly tilted the gun down at an angle and he squeezed the trigger, he said.

Meet Set On Possible Pool For Westmoor

Superintendent Ed Morgan, of the Jefferson High School District, will meet with directors of the Westlake Improvement Association on the evening of November 16 to discuss the possibility of erecting a swimming pool at Westmoor High School.

Morgan notes that many citizens have called his office and Daly City Parks-Recreation Director Dee Van Nest, asking about pool facilities. The district is very hesitant about building the pool since as all square footage it would cover would be under the State School Building Program and this space be counted against the district's eligibilty for more classrooms.

The November 16 meeting is to discuss and explore the idea of public subscriptions. Morgan notes that Westmoor, when originally built, had facilities built for connections to a pool if a pool became a certainty.

Morgan stated there was one other means to building the pool without losing square footage for new classrooms. This would be to sell the land to the city of Daly City and let other outside interests build the pool.

In other business concerning Westmoor High:

The board heard a report from Paul Reiter, of Architect Mario Ciampi's office, on recommendations of controlling heat at certain Westmoor corridor classrooms. Awnings to protect against the sun's rays was his recommendation but trustees balked at this proposal.

Even with awnings a certain amount of sunlight would reflect to the classrooms and damage to the awnings would be easy to inflict.

Westmoor Principal Glenn South explained the problem by citing that on one warm day when the temperature was 86 degrees outside, these temporary classrooms were 96 degrees.

The Board also received a report on Pacifica students attending Westmoor and found 837 of them in the total enrollment of 1500. The figures for Pacifica students in each class are: Freshmen, 290; Sophomores, 229; Juniors, 171; Seniors, 147.

Council Uproar

essential, maintained that he wasn't sure that municipal authorization designates the job and title of public works director.

Calhoun replied that his understanding was that he is the "director of public works" and not just the engineer and street superintendent. As a matter of fact, Cafferata is titled street foreman and Ford is water department supervisor under Calhoun's authority.

Mrs. Garrison, finally getting Pacelli to admit that Calhoun's status had been discussed by the council, followed by asking Pacelli and DeBernardi what qualifications the individuals who would replace Calhoun have. She again reminded the council of DeBernardi's statements last year to the effect that the city would save considerable administrative costs by eliminating the "director of public works," placing command of the street and water departments in the hands of Cafferata and Ford (long-time city employees) under the direct supervision of the city manager—thus eliminating the public works directorship.

Calhoun quickly repeated that there was no doubt in his mind that he was the director of public works, title and otherwise, and asserted that the next-in-line "qualified" engineer in his department, William Chapman, had only recently attained full civil engineer status. Calhoun indicated that this was a statement of fact and was not intended to challenge or reflect on Chapman's qualifications.

Mrs. Michael Amorose, housewife from St. Francis Heights, then joined Mrs. Garrison in the controversy over Calhoun and his job title.

The St. Francis woman asked Pacelli who would coordinate the department of public works activities in the absence of a professional man like Calhoun. Pacelli answered that this was the city manager's responsibility, suggesting that he felt the public works department heads (water and streets) might be qualified to handle these assignments.

Verducci, again insisting that a professional city manager should be consulted on any plans to reorganize the department of public works, declared that in 23 California cities with populations ranging from 30,000 to 50,000, that 19 have directors of public works.

Verducci admitted that the full council had agreed that Calhoun didn't measure up to the capabilities they expected, but that an immediate dismissal of Calhoun or requested resignation would not be fair and certainly would not be conclusive until all the facts are presented and discussed.

Calhoun no doubt will immediately look for another job but will insist that the council specify their reasons for seeking his resignation. Last Thursday evening Calhoun was granted two weeks of vacation time, on his request, by the council.

DeBernardi was taken to task verbally by Hoke Garrison Monday night. The latter demanded that DeBernardi resign after Garrison cited DeBernardi's alleged motives in backing the appointment of ousted City Manager Howard Stites (last fall), DeBernardi's endorsement of subsequently fired city manager George Watts and DeBernardi's alleged maneuverings against Calhoun and the action to eliminate the public works department.

Garrison's "you should resign" comment to DeBernardi brought a heavy round of applause from the audience.

Calhoun was recommended by Stites and was hired with council approval in January of 1957.

POLICE ANSWER EMERGENCY 'OUTSIDE' CALL

Michael Spatafora, 8 years old, 166 Shakespeare street, was rushed to Junipero Serra Hospital last Thursday evening after accidentally re-opening stitches that had been taken on his left hand two weeks ago.

Due to the emergency, Daly City Police drove him there although the residence is actually in San Francisco, said Officer James Sunderland.

Officer Tom Culley took the boy and his mother, Mrs. Jewel Spatafora, 45, to the hospital. After the boy was treated they were returned home.

TV and Radio

By Mona Baker

"Broadcasting is most effective on stations that have earned the respect and confidence of the communities they serve." This is the basic philosophy of Westinghouse Broadcasting Company which was certainly emphasized by their recent public service conference dedicated to broadening the scope and increasing the effectiveness of service programming. In the light of the quiz show investigations, this is a philosophy that should be practiced by all television and radio stations.

In the end it is you the viewer who decides the merit of any program. We have stressed this many times in our column, do encourage informative programming, and be selective in your viewing. KPIX, WBC's local outlet, is adhering to their company's philosophy and continuing to add such programs at convenient evening viewing hours. Two recent outstanding additions include "The American Civil War" (Tues. 7:30pm), and new series premiering this week, "CBS Reports" (Tues. 10pm), an outstanding documentary series which has been in production for nearly a year, and covers a wide range of subjects including missiles, cancer and population. Study guides are available for both series, so they can be used as supplementary assignments by teachers. Write the Education Department at KPIX.

Along this line, a recent addition to radio is the new series over KIBE (weekdays 10:30 am) is one titled "Adventures in Family Living" featuring Marian Koehler Rowe, well-known for her "Adventure School" program. An experienced teacher with a wealth of background in this field, she is well- qualified to advice you on family living. Write her if you have any topics you would like her to discuss.

• • •

KQED has come up with an unique and certainly helpful idea for a program. Have you ever figured up how many hours you spend in committee meetings in a week, and then decided half of it was a waste of time. Tackling the problem, "The Committee Meeting" premieres this Thursday, 9:30pm over Channel 9 covering such subjects as ways to improve agenda, role of chairman and members and other vital functions. Do tune in — perhaps you discover a spark to set fire to your next committee meeting.

• • •

Another in the outstanding series of medical programs produced by the S. F. Medical Society is scheduled for Oct. 29 (KRON-TV, 10:30) titled "Artery Reconstruction Surgery."

VETERANS' QUESTIONS ANSWERED

Q—As a veteran of World War I getting a VA pension, I understand I can continue receiving pension under the present system or go under a new system when it becomes effective July 1, 1960. When must I make my choice?

A—There is no set time for making your choice. It can be made at any time. However, once you have made your choice you must stick with it. You cannot change back. VA will send you ample information to help you make the right choice.

Q—I entered school under the GI Bill this fall, but so far I have not received an allowance check from VA. How soon after starting school may I expect my first check?

A—Veterans starting school under the Korean GI Bill can expect to wait about two months for their first GI allowance check. The reason is, the law does not permit VA to pay a student until after the first month of classroom work has been completed, and VA is allowed up to 20 days after that to get the check in the mails.

• • • •

Q—I have a disability income rider on my GI insurance which will pay me up to $50 a month, if I become totally disabled. I understand the amount has been raised and that my coverage could now be greater if I want it that way. Please give me the details.

A—A recent law increased the total disability payments to up to $100 a month. You may obtain this additional coverage for a small addition premium over what you are now paying.

Q—Is a peacetime veteran with a disability rated 50 percent entitled to more compensation for dependents?

A—Yes. Peacetime veterans rated 50 percent or more disabled may be entitled to additional compensation for a wife, minor children, and dependent parents.

AROUND TOWN

By ROY HURLBERT

The political pot is perking in Daly City with another council election just 'round the bend.

Terms of Frank Pacelli and Joe Verducci expire. Naturally they want to keep their jobs. More-than-rumored seekers of the two four-year posts are former councilmen Del Wilson and Sanford Vickers (outvoted last time) and "teammates" (same election) Edward Murphy and Joe Lewkowitz.

Drums are beating quietly for one machine's support of McRobert Stewart, born on the old side of town but now a Westlake resident and association mainstay.

Councilman Micheal DeBernardi of Westlake won't be a candidate for county supervisor, after all. The time is not propitious for such a move, we guess is his reason. Earlier DeB had announced an interest in the race.

Nearing-70 Tom Callan Sr., according to long-time political followers, is hard to beat since he has the backing, reputation, central organization, and most of all — the incumbency.

DeBernardi, only 33, isn't too well known outside his own bailiwick. To win at county level a candidate must have balanced county support.

• • • •

City Clerk Evelyn Mosman, 56 years old and a city employee the past 15 years, also faces re-election to her $600 a month task next spring.

Evelyn, born in Minnesota and an elementary school teacher there before coming to DC in 1925, does a lot of paperwork for a woman who doesn't prefer to use shorthand at council meetings.

Mrs. Mosman become city clerk here in 1956 when B. C. Ross, holder of the job for 33 years, called a it quits and entered the pastures of retirement.

Mr. Ross is still going strong. He'll be 79 next year.

• • • •

The city clerk's office the past month has been operating at half-mast. Mrs. Evelyn Weckerle is recovering from an ankle break and Mrs. Anna Ohlendorf is better after minor surgery.

• • • •

Merchants along Mission street here should follow the lead of blinds-and-shades company owner Ray Charette of Bepler street.

Ray did almost as much work in protesting the city's Master Land-Use Plan (he suggests improvements particularly in the older part of town as did the hired firm of Hahn, Wise and Barber.

Too bad more businessmen and citizens aren't as interested in DC's future as Charette has demonstrated.

• • • •

Roland Petrocchi has been Daly City police chief since August of 1952. (A woman asked last week if he were elected to the post).

Petrocchi joined the force here in October of 1941. He was upped to sergeant in 1946. He became temporary chief in August of 1951.

• • • •

Duty - bound Wilfred O'Rourke, the Westlaker who is the newest appointee to the DC parks - recreation commission, was in a quandry last week.

He showed up at War Memorial Building for a commission meeting but couldn't find the rest of the board.

Don't know if he ever did locate them.

NEW Latter Day Saints Mormon Church, under construction at the corner of Hillside boulevard and Brunswick street, is aking rapid progress. The building will be unique in design, particularly due to the sloped nature of the once steep and rocky plot it will occoupy.

DC Postoffice Needs Workers For Xmas Rush

Applications will be accepted for temporary Christmas work at the Daly City Postoffice from November 1 to November 15, Postmaster Vincent P. Murphy of Daly City announced today. Disabled veterans, or their widows, may apply from November 1 to December 1.

Applicants must be over 18 years of age, cannot be employed in any other position, and must reside within the Daly City Postoffice, according to Murphy.

Work will be assigned to applicants according to the following priority groups: 1—eligibles on Civil Service register. 2—Disabled veterans or their widows. 3—veterans. 4—non-veterans. Assignments will be made only to fill the needs of the mail flow and hours of duty will be set accordingly.

GUS SAKALDASIS APPOINTED TO UTAH U. POST

Gud Sakaldasis, son of Mrs. Chrisoula Sakaldasis of 155 Knowles avenue, Daly City, has been elected an officer of the Tri-dorm system at University of Utah.

A junior majoring in pharmacy at the Salt Lake City school, he is a 1956 graduate of Jefferson High, where he was active in football, baseball, and class activities.

As a dorm officer, he will assist in forming policy and planning activities for Utah students living on campus.

UNITED CRUSADE REPORTS DUE AT MATEO MEET

A United Crusade campaign report luncheon will be held at the Elks Club, 229 West Twentieth avenue, San Mateo, on Thursday, November 5, at noon.

Luncheon tickets are $1.50 and may be purchased by sending the money to the Crusade office in San Mateo, 2297 South El Camino Real, San Mateo. Each volunteer worker purchases her own ticket.

All Daly City volunteers who participated in the residential drive for the United Crusade are invited to attend. It is hoped that by that time, Daly City will have 100 percent of its quota.

Mrs. Martin Orloff, San Mateo County residential chairman, attended the San Francisco United Crusade's residential luncheon at the Fairmont Hotel.

Donald Wiesner Aboard Carrier

Donald M. Wiesner, seaman, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Wiesner, 49 Lake Forest drive, Daly City, is serving aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Essex in the Mediterranean. On the night of October 21 the Essex chalked up its 93,000th arrested plane landing.

Essex is far ahead of other active duty carriers in landings but still remains 4459 behind the all-time mark of 97,459 set by the old carrier USS Saratoga before it was sunk in an A-bomb test off Bikini, 1948.

Past President Of SF Rotary To Speak Here

The provocative subject, "Babbitt, Boob, Character or Rotarian" will be topic of the talk to be heard by Daly City Rotarians at their next Wednesday.

The speaker, Jim Tuttle, is well versed on his subject, being a past president of the San Francisco Rotary club. He will be introduced by program chairman John Christensen.

Finemaster for the November 4 program is Bob Ellis, while Jerry Miles will present a life sketch.

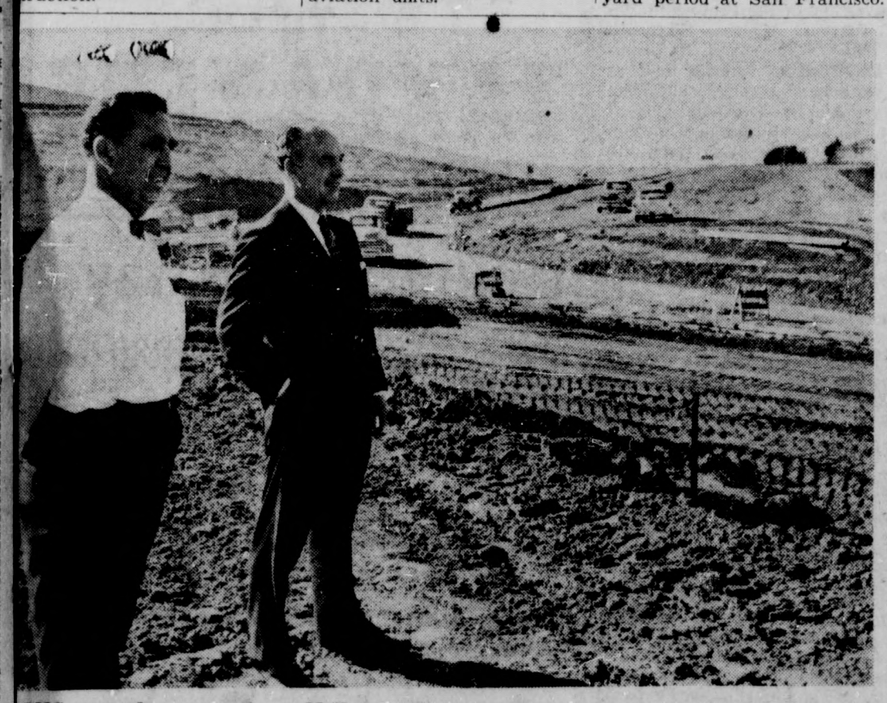
November 11 will be a Rotary "holiday," with no meeting scheduled in observance of Veterans Day.

MARINE RECRUIT OFFICE OPEN THURSDAY NIGHTS

For those who find it more convenient to shop at night, Sergeants Dan Coleman and Paul Britting, Daly City Marine Corps Recruiters, announce that their office will remain open on Thursday evenings from 5 until 9:30.

The sergeants extend an invitation to parents and to qualified young men and women to drop in and discuss service obligation and to help plan a service future.

The sergeants also announce that house calls will be made mornings or evenings if you telephone PL 6-4110 for an appointment.



LONG-snagged agreement on realignment of Eastmoor avenue in St. Francis Heights has ended and work is moving along well. Inspecting the Callan and McKeon project (above) are Councilman Francis Pacelli (left) and Public Works Director Otis Calhoun. Residents are currently using a temporary road, bordering on the M. Pauline Brown School site, made possible by elementary school district officials.

Daly City-Colma Camp Fire Girls Plan Many Halloween Parties

The opportunity not only to learn about but to do something for children in other lands is one of the privileges of belonging to organizations such as Camp Fire Girls and their junior program, the Blue Birds.

Daly City-Westlake and Colma members are coinciding their Halloween and service activities by collecting ends of yarn balls and old spools of thread as a part of their "Send Santa Overseas" national project. The yarn will be used for knitting warm socks and mittens when received in foreign countries and the threads for sewing and mending.

The balls of yarn will be rewound to conceal small gifts for children as "surprise balls." Spools of thread will be made up with wire into dolls. Distribution of the articles will be made by the American Friends Service Committee.

The Ao-Wa-Hi Camp Fire group of Westlake will include in their "Send Santa Overseas" project a collection of babies' and children's shoes for distribution overseas by the Save the Children Federation. PTA Leaders Get The Lowdown On 'The Growing Menace--Pornography

Lewd magazines, girlie pictures, obscene pamphlets and many other vivid examples of pornographic art and literature found themselves on brief and unheralded display Thursday, October 15, at Ravenswood High School in East Palo Alto.

Behind closed doors, members of the 17th District of the California Congress of Parents and Teachers perused the materials which have become the strongly significant examples of a growing menace, not only in San Mateo County, but across the U.S.

The printed matter, presented as eye-openers to the PTAers, is part of the famed collection of pornographic and obscene literature used by Louis J. Francis, 25th District State Assemblyman, in his two-year legislative move for state action against such filth being purveyed via mgazine racks, newsstands, and "back-room salesmen."

As part of a four-person panel, presented to the monthly meeting of the county-wide PTA group, Mr. Francis charged that "lewd and obscene literature is rapidly replacing the textbooks of our children." He explained that while textbook expenditures account for thousands of dollars annually, pornographic sales are in the millions of dollars, and that 75 per cent of the purchasers are teen-agers. He acknowledged that most parents of these youthful customers know nothing about such materials, pointing out the understandable fact that "the kids don't bring it home!"

Under the auspices of the district department of public welfare, the panel was moderated by Loren A. Beckley, chief probation officer for San Mateo County, and a member of the 17th District advisory board.

He stated his conviction that while pornographic and obscene literature and art was not to be condoned in any sense, he felt that in itself was not a cause of juvenile delinquency.

Miss Virginia Ross, San Mateo County librarian, presented a chronological review of the accepted ideas of obscenity in the U.S., citing her belief that what is obscene or indecent to some persons might not be to others.

Speaking for the U.S. Government, and its fight against misuse of the mails, James J. Kehoe, San Mateo postmaster, pleaded for more cooperation from the public in reporting instances of pornographic material coming to homes via the mails.

"Any child," he stated, "who has ever subscribed to a comic book, craft magazine, or even sent for a plastic model airplane kit is a prospect for the mailing list of companies purveying indecent literature. If yours is not on one now, he may be soon," the postmaster warned

Beechwood Drive Man Charged With Indecent Exposure

Two St. Francis Heights girls, 7 and 11 years, said a man indecently exposed himself to them Tuesday last week after they got off a school bus and were walking home.

The two girls said they heard a man whistling at the top of the stairs at a new home under construction at 408 El Dorado drive. When they looked up the man reportedly exposed himself.

The mother of one of the girls said she saw a car back out of the garage and notified Officer Dave Johnstone. Johnstone caught up with the auto and halted the suspect. The woman identified the car and one of the girls positively identified the man.

Officer Phil LaBruzzo and Johnstone brought the suspect to the station where he finally admitted his guilt, they said. Taken into custody was Robert Lee Roberts, 26, 774 Beechwood drive, an inspector for a porcelain and refinishing company.

He was released pending a signed complaint from the girl's mother.

Roberts was charged with indecent exposure and released on $262.50 bail bond.

Falls Down Stairs

Jacklyn Olhaft, 34, 134 Miriam street, suffered injuries to her right foot and leg when she missed the first step and fell down a flight of stairs at the residence of Nicholas Badoe, 75 Hillcrest drive.

The mishap occurred Wednesday last week at 4:30 p.m. She was brought to Junipero Serra Hospital and then transported home by Officer Richard Sims.

Indian Runners Beat Hillsdale

Jeff High's varsity cross-country team sped past Hillsdale, 24-32, last Thursday on the Indian stamping grounds.

The Indians were led by Bob Alverio (first) and consistent workman Anibal Davila (second). Other results: Third, Larry Main (H); fourth, Harry Cotton (H); fifth, Joe Vaez (J); sixth, Pat Sehl (H); seventh, Otto Dof (J); eighth, Dick Singleton (H); ninth Olin Craig (J); and tenth, Ted Marquez (J).

Jeff's frosh-soph long distance kids could gain only one placing among the top 10 with Lenny Marston gaining ninth spot as Norman Cady's Indians lost, 15-50. Dave Mackley of Hillsdale was first.

MICKEY DeBernardi steams into third base and then scored to give the Daly City Police-Firemen one of their runs in a 5-4 win over the Broadmoor-Colma nine Sunday. Coach Harry Krohn keeps a close watch on the play while third baseman "Mo" Masini of the Colma fire department follows the flight of the ball.

DC Municipal Nine Decisions B'moor-Colma

About 200 spectators saw Daly City's police and firemen outlast Colma's firemen and Broadmoor police, 5-4, in seven innings Sunday in their benefit baseball clash at Marchbanks park.

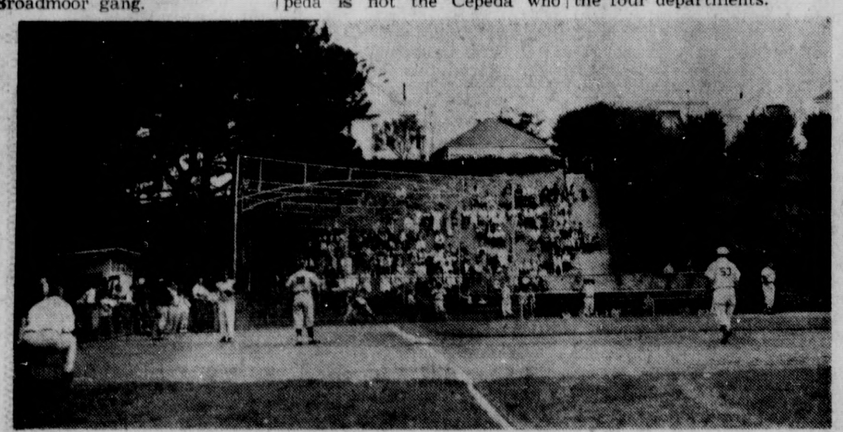
Dick Brewer (police) and Chuck Christian (fireman) shared pitching duties for the winners. Eddie Leveroni, who pitched DC's Jeff High to the North Peninsula championship in 1957, hurled for the Colma-Broadmoor gang.

Highlight of the fun-filled affair was a roaring argument between "Mo" Masini (Colma third sacker), major league umpire Babe Pinelli, and announcer Mel Battye. Pinelli pinned Masini without batting an eye.

Broadmoor Police Chief Ray Savage handled first base so impressively that onlooker Orlando Cepeda told Ray he should seriously consider working out with the Giants. (Cepeda is not the Cepeda who plays for Rigney, and the Giants are not the SF pros but a Sunday sandlot team).

DC fireman Gene Klinger, former property of the San Francisco Seals and Boston Red Sox (a matter of fact), was outstanding in centerfield for the victors. He got two hits, one a double.

Actually, it was a well played ball game. Proceeds went to the youth groups sponsored by the four departments.



BLEACHERS were almost filled Sunday when Daly City's fire and police horsehiders played the Broadmoor-Colma departments at Marchbanks park—the city's outstanding baseball diamond. Proceeds went to youth groups.

Alaska Product Has 597 Series

Jerry Johnson, a recent arrival from Alaska, bowled her highest three game total, 597, on Johnny Swanson's Westlake Bowl lanes.

A 4-6 split in the last frame of the third game kept Jerry from rolling her first 600 series. Her previous high series was 585.

Jerry and her husband Dave, who teaches ROTC at Gallieo High, spent three years in the 49th state.

Vic Dermody flashed some of his old time form as he worked over the pins for a 653 series. Vic put together games of 221-235 and 197 as his team, Eilken Signs, took the odd game from Kray's Auto Parts.

Two years in a row the Bummers five of the G.E.T. league were involved in a rolloff for first place. They again became champions as they downed the Bombers quintet in the best two out of three game series.

Ten Pin Chatter . . . Bill Greer gave the railbirds a thrill as he put together a string of strikes, a spare and a seven count for a big 277 game . . . After a shaky start, Primo Liberatore found the range to finish with 222 and 214 for 604 . . . Bob Holcomb missed the charmed circle as he totaled 599 on games of 214-181-204 . . . Mel Schiller also was close . . . two pins away with 598 . . . An old timer in the bowling game, Ernie Anselmo, paced the Val's Redwood Room five with a 589 series.

Warriors Beat Rams, 19-6; Hillsdale Plays At Westmoor Today

Westmoor's Rams have butted heads with two opponents thus far and been knocked off their feet both times but hope to recuperate against defending champs and pre-season favorite, Hillsdale, this Friday at 3 p.m. on their own grazing grounds.

As usual, it was a Jim Heick pass that accounted for the only Westmoor tally in Friday's losing battle with South San Francisco, 19 - 6. Pete Daniels gathered in the toss and scored on the 26-yard play.

South City's Warriors were never behind, drawing first blood at 7-0 in the third quarter with Rich Zinn tearing up six yards of turf. The first TD could be accredited to Ed Elliott, a halfback up from the junior varsity, who reeled off a 47-yard dash. Elliott ran over the conversion.

Westmoor's 50-yard drive in seven plays pulled the Rams to 7-6 but they couldn't get into scoring territory again.

Zinn carried around right end for 56 yards with 6:31 remaining to put the Warriors ahead, 13-6. Heick attempting to get the Rams back into the ball game started tossing more. Tom Rodgers intercepted a pass of Heick's and brought the ball to the 50-yard stripe.

Robert Esquibel's 41-yard race with a wild pitchout, that he had to gobble up before Ram defenders met him, set up the final score. John Gallegos' si-yard run capped the scoring.

Walt Prouty had a better than 9 yards per carry average with 85 yards in 9 tries for the Rams. Tom Dake carried 9 times for 38 yards and Webb Parker 14 times for 31 yards. Heick only managed four of 15 pass completions for 55 yards.

Zinn was a workhorse, carrying 15 times, but reached the winners' circle as the leading Warrior ground gainers with 139 yards. Rodgers, Esquibel and Elliott did not carry often but had high averages by stepping off long gainers. Rodgers averaged 8, Esquibel 22 and Elliott 6 yards per carry.

Hillsdale is the defending league champion and Coach Frank Collin, last year's Peninsula League Coach of the Year, has Ron Peters back as a halfback. Peters is the "bread and butter" in the Knight's spread T offense and will bear close watching.

Westmoor Coach Pete Matisi, absorbing his second loss of the young season and third yearly defeat by South City, says, "We'll have to stop Peters."

"I was pleased with the defensive line, especially the work of Bob Porras and Andy Saranchock, in the first half, but in the second half the line fell apart and that was the ball game. One of these days we're going to put the two halfs together and tuck a win into our record books.

BYA Colts Jolt OLPH, 12-2, In Touch-Football

The third week of touch-football sponsored by the Daly City Department of Parks and Recreation found upsets and tight ball games highlighting the action.

In the 8th Grade League, the BYA Colts upset previously unbeaten OLPH, 12-2. Gary Mendosa and Roy Penilli scored the two Colt touchdowns. The BYA Colts are in first place, while OLPH is second. PAL remained in contention with an 8-0 victory over Ben Franklin.

The league-leading 7th grade Daly City Merchants found the going a little rougher against an inspired PAL team. Although the Merchants won 27-6, this was by far their toughest game. The BYA-Snell Indians moved into second place by defeating OLPH, 26-2.

The two leaders, PAL and the BYA 49ers, squared off in the 6th grade league and came out no worse. Both teams gave a maximum defensive effort to force a scoreless tie. The BYA Rams and the PAL Devilpups closed in on the top clubs. The Rams topped OLPH, 14-0, while Jeff Starkovich scored two touchdowns and George Egan one to lead the Devilpups to a 21-0 win over the Ben Franklin Midgets.

In 5th grade competition, the Tigers won their first game of the season. They beat OLPH, 12-6. The BYA Hawks, with a 2-0 record, lead the 5th grade division. They drew a bye last week.

There will be no games this Saturday, October 31. All players are invited to attend the Department of Park and Recreation's "Football Clinic," featuring the San Francisco State College Gators at Westlake and Marchbanks parks at 10 a.m. All participants will see S.F. State host the Cal Aggies of Davis that afternoon at Cox Stadium on the State College campus.

REITZ LOSES PANTS

JEFF JV'S USE 49ER FINISH WITH TWIST

Using a 49er type finish the Jeff High JV's defeated Mills, 20-14, last Monday though end Rich Reitz lost his pants on the key play of the game.

"Legs" Reitz was outstanding as a pass catcher and exposed a lot of ability while catching four passes for 170 yards.

The little Braves were behind 14-0 with 25 seconds left in the first half when Reitz gathered in a Bob Miller pass and raced 75 yards. The third quarter was scoreless and Miller accounted for the next TD by sweeping around right end on a 66 yard play in the final period.

The conversion was good as Miller pitched to Tony Montalbo to make the score 14-13. Things looked black for the Indians when they had a fourth down on their own 30 with only seconds to play but Montalbo passed to Reitz. Reitz sped to the Vikings two yard line on a 68 yard run with the pass, where he and his pants were dropped.

Jeff passing, 8 for 16 attempts, accounted for 210 yds. Reitz snared half the passes for 170 yds. The Indians added 142 rushing yards for total net yardage of 352.

Football Clinic For Daly City Kids Saturday

Football takes the focus here this Saturday, October 31, when members of the undefeated San Francisco State College football team will demonstrate to the youth of Daly City the many phases of football play.

Coaches Joe Verducci and Vic Rowen will be on hand along with "Little All American" quarterback Jim Sochor to exhibit gridiron skills. Instructions will be given concerning every position on a football team.

This program, sponsored by the Daly City Department of Parks and Recreation will be held at Marchbanks and Westlake parks starting at 10 a.m. and lasting until noon. The coaches and players will change sites so that the youth at both parks will be presented with the same program.

In the event of rain, the clinic will be held in the War Memorial Gymnasium at 10 a.m. Parents are invited to attend this program.

Children attending the football clinic will be guests of San Francisco State at their 2 p.m. football game against the California Aggies of Davis at Cox Stadium this Saturday afternoon.

BURLINGAME VERSUS JEFF HERE

Marty — The Pitcher, Not The Picture — To Lead Indian Eleven

Coach Joe McGrath could title his 1959 Jeff verson of his football team "Marty" and not be far wrong.

Thus far, Marty Cosgrove has been the chief character in keeping Jeff football at the respectable level. A 13 point Jeff lead was overcome by Mills High last week and the final films of the game lay on the cutting room floor with Jeff a 26-19 victim.

The next production is this Friday at 3 p.m. here against Burlingame's Panthers. Again playing the starring role in the Indian picture will probably be Cosgrove. The able quarterback hit on 12 of 28 tosses for 151 yards against Mills, two of them TD tosses.

Jeff moved into a quick 13-0 lead on Art Banos three yard run after a 16 yard pass from Cosgrove to Roger Stahl set up the play. Cosgrove pitched a 34 yarder to Banos for the second TD with Ed Crowley booting the conversion.

Mills marched back for 26 points mostly via a strong running game, including a Jeff nemesis, a punt return of 2 yard by Terry Megargee. The final Jeff tally was as of much use as handing a carpenter nails while he was working on a brick building. Cosgrove hit Gil Moreno with a five-yarder for the final six.

The Indian running game, forte of most Peninsula League teams, was ineffectual. Only 43 yards were gained by rushing, 21 of these by Banos.

Burlingame moves in this Friday with a strong club that has won and lost one game. However, the loss was to highly rated Capuchino, 27-13, powerful grid team. The Panthers' victory was over Westmoor, 38-13.

McGrath's club also lost to Cap, 27-7, so by this reasoning could be 6-point underdogs, the point spread of loss between the two teams. Against Westmoor though, Burlingame showed they should be a higher favorite and walk into the game with a 13-point advantage.

Getting back to Marty—the pitcher not the picture—he has been outstanding. In the two league contests he has now completed 32 of 63 passes for 336 yards! He has no doubt thrown the most passes in the league but his completion percentage is terrific, 50.8 percent.

Cosgrove sits tall in the saddle. He stands head and shoulders over most of his teammates and isn't hard to pick out on the football field. He has thrown one more pass than his jersey numeral (No. 62) and passes from a straight up right position.

Most amazing part about his accuracy is that last year he was used as an end. He certainly knows both sides about passing and catching. Burlingame is a tough club, but even though favorites they'll certainly have to watch the senior quarterback.

PENINSULA LEAGUE STANDINGS

Westmoor and Jefferson, two teams who rely on the pass for yardage, were tied for the cellar position in Peninsula League varsity play after two weeks of football. Hillsdale and Capuchino, clubs that run every chance they get, are undefeated and lead the standings.

Team	W	L
Hillsdale	2	0
Capuchino	2	0
San Mateo	1	1
Burlingame	1	1
Mills	1	1
South SF	1	1
Westmoor	0	2
Jefferson	0	2

Durham Tallies 14 Points In Jeff Frosh Win

Wingback Jack Durham scored all Jefferson's points last Thursday as Coach Bob Watt's Indian frosh nipped Westmoor, 14-13, in Peninsula League action.

The crosstown Rams scored first, following a Jeff fumble minutes after the opening kickoff.

Dunham then capped a 45-yard Jeff march with a 20-yard reverse run from QB Dan Hermosillo to make it 7-6. Hermosillo passed to Durham for the extra and a 7-7 halftime tie.

Westmoor went ahead 13-7 early in the third period with a 45-yard drive. Hermosillo came back and hit Durham with another TD aerial and the same pair got the extra point on a pass as Jeff took command, 14-13.

Two other Jeff scoring thrusts were muffed when clipping nullified Larry Kelling's 60-yard punt return and Larry Ahuna dropped a Hermosillo pass in the end zone.

Watts cited linemen Darrell Crist, Lonnie Lonstrom and Sam Hermosillo, Dan's brother. Earlier, the Indians had lost to Burlingame, 12-0, while Westmoor fell to Hillsdale in their opener, 19-0.

Holy Angels Still Unconquered In Touch-Grid Loop

Holy Angels School's seventh grade touch-football team is atop the North County Intermediate League with a 5-0 record.

Latest victims of Coach Al Driscol's locals were Colma School, 41-0, and Ben Franklin School, 12-6, early this week.

Outstanding for Holy Angels were ends Dewey Haught and Jim Shields, and defenders James Hoffmann and Johnny Moran. This week Holy Angels meets second place Millbrae.

Youth Groups To See Free Game Tomorrow At SF State Field

San Francisco State College will hold their annual Youth Groups Football Day at Cox Stadium, Saturday, Joe Verducci, director of athletics and head football coach, announced today.

On that day all San Francisco and Bay Area youth organizations, clubs, and groups will be the special guests of the college and will be admitted to the Gators versus UC (Davis) Aggies football game. Kickoff time is 2 p.m.

Any youth group, organization, or club wishing information about the game and directions to the stadium should call JU 4-2300, Ext. 324.

California's first poet laureate was Ina Coolbrith, who lived on Telegraph Hill in San Francisco.

Jeff Lightweights Trip Westmoor

Westmoor's 120-pound cagers were unexectedly knocked further down in second place in the standings by a determined Jeff five which took a 42-4 double-overtime victory last week.

Ram Coach Tony Giammona played the contest under protest, charging two rule interpretations were incorrect. He will receive notice of his protest action approval or disapproval from the league commissioner momentarily.

Bill Sarris and Darwin Hansen led the Indians with 11 points apiece. Ram point producers were on a sliding scale: Pat Russo, 11; Jim Lucky, 10 and Mike Lanier, 9.

Jeff High's 110's also squeezed past Westmoor, 24-20. Jeff Trager, of Westmoor, led all scorers with 12 markers. Pace-setters for the victors were Crane with 8 points and Presley with 7.

In other games last week the Rams 110ers beat a high flying Mills squad, that had only lost one game, by 27-2. Rich Landess' 9 points were the determining factor.

Pat Russo's 14 points and Mike Lanier's 8 paced the 120's to a 46-37 victory over Mills.

JEFF HIGH — ORLICH MAD: PE director Mike Orlich is still fuming over the "lack of communication" by the league commissioner's office which did not unform him of the fact that the exponent rules for 110 and 120 pound basketball teams had been changed in June.

Orlich finally found out — in the fourth game of the season when he was informed by the San Mateo High coach. "I was wondering why all the other teams were bigger than we were," he exclaimed. The difference could either be five pounds in weight, two inches in height or three months in age.

"It's a building season for us now," Orlich said. Three boys who would have been playing 110's are on the '20's and 10 who would have played 120 class will turn-out for the 130's after the Thanksgiving Day Holiday.

SFS GATORS — GAD! San Francisco State may have their mascot around for the next 500 years. Albert, long enough to furnish the whole female student body with alligator purses, is five feet long and was presented to the college in 1954 by an Air Force Officer who was also a State graduate.

Last year a rival college gatornapped the "pet." That not only takes intestinal fortitude (big words for "guts") but muscular propensity (leaning toward the muscular side) and lack of sagacity (no brains nowhere).

Albert is just a growing youngster. He will lengthen out to 20 feet if he lives to his 500 years. Rumors are that when he attains 10 feet he will be used instead of the sideline chain. Albert usually lives a lush life at Steinhart Aquarium but comes out once a year to bellow the Gators on to victory. He was here for the home coming game last week. See you later, alligator.

ARCHIE-BOBO — GLAD: The moguls of fistiana must be completely out of their mental faculties. The match between Archie Moore and Bobo Olson should be titled as a Western movie, "Return to Broken Jaw." Moore hits good like and old man should but Olson has the "grey sickness" and should succumb easily. Both are happy for the match; Moore because it should be an easy victory with plenty of money and Olson because it should be plenty of money with out fighting his way to the top rankings. It's only the sport fan who's getting the raw deal.
